Academic Chairperson – Public Safety School of Health & Human Services

Excluded

Competition # 29-17/18

Brandon, Manitoba

$87,302 - $111,435 per annum

Assiniboine Community College strives to create exceptional learning experiences for our students while strengthening Manitoba through applied education and research. Our Board has identified Public Safety as an area of provincial program leadership and growth for the college. We are looking for a experienced leader to be our Academic Chairperson, Public Safety.

With a focus on exceptional learning experiences, the Chairperson is responsible for the programs day-to-day operations including: hiring, managing and developing faculty and staff; program development and review; capital planning and budgeting; and ensuring program quality and growth. In addition to the day-to-day operations on campus, the Chairperson will oversee development and delivery of public safety and social services programming through contract training and community partnerships while ensuring industry standards and provincial needs.

Over the last decade Assiniboine has worked with partners across Manitoba to develop successful permanent and contract programs in the field of Public Safety, including Police Studies, First Nations Safety Officer, and and professional inservice training programs. In addition, the college has two speciality training centres to support training for the sector.

The college is searching for a proven leader with credibility in the sector and experience working with partners and stakeholders who can spearhead the development of the portfolio. The ideal candidate has background in education and training, as well as, appropriate academic credentials (Master degree preferred).

A review of applications will commence on November 14, 2017. This competition will remain open until filled.

Assiniboine Community College campuses are located on traditional territories of Treaty No.1 and Treaty No.2, the shared traditional lands of Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota, Dene and Anishinabek/Ojibwe peoples, and the homeland of the Métis Nation.
