INSTRUCTOR

Applied Counselling Skills – Centre of Continuing Studies

Long Plain First Nation

Evening/Weekend Course Deliveries

Immediate and Future Start Dates

Employment Contract

Assiniboine Community College strives to create Exceptional Learning Experiences for our students. We place a high priority on student success and are committed to building an environment that creates and supports a high level of student engagement.

The Centre of Continuing Studies is looking to establish an eligibility list of qualified instructors for our Applied Counselling Skills program being delivered in Long Plain First Nation.

Be Passionate. You are passionate about student success and engagement and have a direct understanding of what the education needs are for individuals going into the counselling field. You lead students to an understanding of their role in the social service setting, supporting them to integrate their theoretical knowledge with individual clients and community programs.

Take Initiative. Your previous experience shows that you are independent and look for opportunities to expand education services within the community; self-motivation is critical for this role and your energetic attitude and collaborative spirit will build the groundwork for success.

Deliver Results. As an instructor, you will be responsible for classroom management and ongoing curriculum development. Experience teaching in an adult setting is considered an asset. You will hold a related Degree and will draw on diverse experiences and a strong foundation of knowledge to support student success.

An eligibility list is a pool of qualified candidates that can be called upon to fill current and future positions within the program in Long Plain.

This competition will remain open until filled.

Assiniboine Community College campuses are located on traditional territories of Treaty No.1 and Treaty No.2, the shared traditional lands of Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota, Dene and Anishinabek/Ojibwe peoples, and the homeland of the Métis Nation.
