Education Assistant Comprehensive Health Care Aide Program Waywayseecappo First Nation

Casual/Part-time Term (Oct – Dec, 2018 and Feb – Mar, 2019)

Competition# 10-18/19

Salary: $20.64 – $24.08 per hour

(Education Assistant 1)

Assiniboine Community College strives to create Exceptional Learning Experiences for our students. We put a high priority on student success and are committed to building an environment that creates and supports a high level of student engagement. In addition to on-campus training, the School of Health & Human Services partner with First Nation communities to deliver on-site health care training. This position will be working with a team to support students in the Comprehensive Health Care Aid (CHCA) Program in Waywayseecappo First Nation.

Be Passionate.

You are passionate about student success and engagement and have a direct understanding of supports individuals require in the post-secondary setting. You support students by working with individuals and small groups to facilitate application of effective study techniques and support student success by mentoring the writing process and guiding students in effective research techniques.

Take Initiative.

Your previous experience shows that you are independent and that you use excellent communication and team-work skills to support student success. Self-motivation combined with an energetic attitude and a collaborative spirit will build the groundwork for success in this position.

Deliver Results.

As the education assistant, you will be responsible for working with instructors and students to support students in their quest to meet the learning outcomes as prescribed in the course outlines. You will have solid knowledge of tutoring/mentoring students, and will draw on your diverse experiences to support student success. A college diploma or university degree is required; you will work flexible hours (mostly evenings and weekends) that correspond to the program schedule. Experience working in an adult environment and with Indigenous communities is an asset. In accordance with the college's strategic direction, preference will be given to Indigenous candidates.

This competition will remain open until filled.

Assiniboine Community College campuses are located on traditional territories of Treaty No.1 and Treaty No.2, the shared traditional lands of Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota, Dene and Anishinabek/Ojibwe peoples, and the homeland of the Métis Nation.
