

WE ARE NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR:

Data Analyst - Brandon Police Service

Using computer databases, electronic spreadsheets, desktop publishing, word processing, and statistical applications to manipulate, analyze and present data, the Data Analyst assists operational and administrative personnel in planning and deploying Police resources as well as supplies street level personnel with timely information. The Analyst forecasts crime developments and reviews, develops and/or recommends data and analysis systems to benefit all stakeholders in the Justice System.

EDUCATION

- Degree in Criminology, Criminal Justice, social sciences with strong emphasis on research methodology OR post-secondary diploma with minimum two years of related analytical experience which must include applied research, preferably in law enforcement or government.
- Competitive candidates will also have additional courses, certification or a degree in:
 - Applied research in police, government or other public agency
 - Criminology or Social research
 - Statistical and data analysis
 - Research Methodology

EXPERIENCE

- Minimum two years of related analytical experience which must include applied research, preferably in law enforcement or government.
- Practical experience in research methodology, statistics, GIS, and database administration.

Competition # 190011

Please apply with a cover letter and resume, clearly indicating how you fit the position requirements, on-line at:
<http://jobbank.brandon.ca>.

Posted on: January 30, 2019

Applications will be accepted until 11:59 p.m., February 13, 2019.

Rate of Pay: $73,533.59 - $78,861.49 annually

See the Job Description on the City of Brandon website for complete position details and requirements.

The City of Brandon thanks all applicants for their interest; only those advancing in the competition will be contacted.

The City of Brandon is committed to an inclusive, barrier free environment and will accommodate the needs of applicants under the Accessibility for Manitobans Act (AMA) throughout all stages of the recruitment and selection process. We thank all applicants for their interest; only those advancing in the competition will be contacted. If contacted to participate in the process, please advise if you require an accommodation.