

Ridgeline Agriservices is a progressive seed retail which provides sales and service for Pioneer Hi-Bred products based out of Arcola, SK in South Eastern Saskatchewan. Our agency promotes and sells all of Pioneer Hi-Bred product lines: canola, soybean, corn and sunflowers. The products are tested and proven on our farm.

Full-Time Sales Agronomist

You will be responsible for building customer loyalty by providing sound agronomic advice and solutions to meet the needs, resolve issues and maximize productivity for existing customers. You will strategically target new customers and build a lasting business relationship with the grower by providing services, support and products from Ridgeline Agriservices that meet their unique needs

You will have post secondary degree or diploma in Agriculture combined with sales experience. Proven abilities to influence, sell and market products and services. You will have a demonstrated understanding of agronomic practices and overall agriculture industry and the ability to relate and communicate effectively with all members of the agriculture industry.

Any questions can be forwarded to: Stacy Brownridge (306) 577-3230

Please submit your resume in confidence to: ridgelineag@plantpioneer.com

Deadline – March 8, 2019