Instructor – Meat Cutting Pork Processing Certificate Sandy Bay Ojibway First Nation

Continuing Studies

Competition # 85-18/19

Salary range: $30.53 - $36.59 hourly

Full-time and Part-time Term

Assiniboine Community College strives to create Exceptional Learning Experiences for our students. We place a high priority on student success and are committed to building an environment that creates and supports a high level of student engagement. Continuing Studies is seeking an instructor to teach in our Pork Processing certificate program located in Sandy Bay.

Be Passionate.

If you are professionally driven and are the type of person who will thrive on producing quality programs that are responsive to Manitoba's labour market, then you are the sort of person we are looking for. We are looking for the person who can pass along their knowledge and produce graduates that have mastered their skills and can secure career related employment.

Take Initiative.

You are the type of person who takes initiative and ensures you provide an unparalleled student experience for our students through positive classroom management, student evaluation, academic advising, and related administrative duties. You will be an engaging, forward-thinking and culturally aware instructor.

Deliver Results.

In order to deliver the results we need, you will need extensive meat cutting experience with a preference given to those who have graduated from a recognized meat cutting program. In addition, you will have excellent communication skills, organization skills, and ability to work effectively in a professional team environment. Although not required, experience teaching adult learners, curriculum development, and retail meat management would be an asset.

This competition will remain open until filled.

Assiniboine Community College campuses are located on traditional territories of Treaty No.1 and Treaty No.2, the shared traditional lands of Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota, Dene and Anishinabek/Ojibwe peoples, and the homeland of the Métis Nation.
