

Indigenous Affairs

Indigenous Affairs provides cultural and academic supports to Indigenous students to ensure they feel welcome, safe and a sense of belonging as they pursue their academic goals.

STUDENT SUCCESS ADVISOR

- ▶ As part of the student services team, Cecil Roulette provides culturally-based academic advising support to Indigenous students. A member of the Anishinaabeg Nation, he also serves as a link to community resources available to support students' physical, emotional, spiritual and intellectual well-being.

CULTURAL SERVICES COORDINATOR

- ▶ Crystal Bunn is a member of the Dakota Nation who organizes cultural events and activities within our Brandon campuses. She is a support and resource inside and outside the college which includes the many different needs of students. She also helps coordinate the Elders & Knowledge Keepers Program and our Indigenous Peer Mentors.

Indigenous Students' Cultural Centres

Our Cultural Centres provide a comfortable, welcoming environment for Indigenous students to relax and mingle. It is an ideal place to visit with Elders, Knowledge Keepers and fellow students, study, or relax between or after classes.

ELDERS & KNOWLEDGE KEEPERS

- ▶ Our Elders & Knowledge Keepers come from many Nations who share their customs, language, cultural teachings, guidance and support to all students. A schedule is posted for bi-weekly visits but are also available outside these hours upon request.

VISIT US

- ▶ Victoria Avenue East campus: Room 430A
- ▶ North Hill campus: Len Evans Centre for Trades & Technology, Room P112
- ▶ Parkland campus: Room 109
- ▶ Winnipeg campus: Room 133

PEER MENTORS

- ▶ Indigenous peer mentors serve to support and encourage new and returning Indigenous students. Through one-on-one and group mentoring, they act as a thoughtful, positive role model who provides access to people and resources, while also fostering a sense of connectedness and belonging.

WANT TO LEARN MORE?

- ▶ Students interested in developing their understanding of Indigenous cultures are encouraged to contact the Indigenous Affairs team.
