Additional information:

- You will have a maximum of FOUR months to complete the course work from your start date.
- Once you have your course materials, you are working through the distance manual for your readings, assignments and instructions.
- You can start your studies anytime during your four month time period as completing the course by distance is self-directed. The expectation is students manage their own time with their studies and complete all course work by the end date. Submitting assignments in a timely manner is recommended to allow time for feedback from your instructor.
- Your instructor will contact you within one week after your course start date. If you are not contacted by the instructor initiate contact and introduce yourself then proceed to ask your question(s).
- If you are unable to reach your instructor or have general questions about the program, please contact the School of Health & Human Services at 1.800.862.6307 ext 6699 or 725.8700 ext 6699 or haddowk@assiniboine.net.
