

Marketing & Promotions Intern

Mid May – Mid August

The Wheat City Whiskey Jacks Baseball Club is looking for a Marketing and Promotions Intern for the 2020 season. This position will work under the supervision of the General Manager. This position is highly visible and interacting with the sponsors and the fans on a nightly basis.

Game-Day Responsibilities:

Serve as an in-game host while conducting promotions on field and in the stands
Responsible for coordinating aspects of promotional schedule including giveaways and theme nights
Responsible for coordinating pre-game on-field activities including national anthem singers, local little league teams for starting line-up (Field of Dreams teams), ceremonial first pitch, and mascot planning
Writing game script for use by PA announcer and promotions (as required)
Ensuring props and promotional supplies are ready for each game and properly stored after each game
Assist in all pre-game set-up and post-game cleanup operations as needed

General Responsibilities:

Continually brainstorm new, exciting in-game promotions corresponding with promotional schedule/theme nights
Assist in making sure sponsored promotions are meeting the needs of their contract
Attend mascot and player appearances in the community
Assist in all aspects of team operations and other duties as assigned by management
Must commit to all 32 regular season home games and playoffs if applicable
Must be able to work non-traditional hours (nights and weekends)

Skills & Experience Required:

Engaging, highly energetic and outgoing personality is a must. Must have a passion for sports, feel comfortable speaking in front of large crowds on a wireless microphone, have excellent communication skills, and excellent time management and organizational skills are required. Must have the ability to lift 50+ lbs.

Interested, apply with resume to;

Ray Walker

General Manager

Wheat City Whiskey Jacks Baseball Club

ray@wheatcitywhiskeyjacks.com