Welding Program

Len Evans Centre for Trades and Technology

Part-time Term (July 2020 – March 2021)

Competition# 69-19/20

Salary: $24.34 to $33.18 per hour

Classification: Assistant Guidance Counsellor

Assiniboine Community College strives to create Exceptional Learning Experiences for our students. We place a high priority on student success and are committed to building an environment that creates and supports a high level of student engagement. The School of Trades is seeking a Job Coach to work in our Welding program located in Brandon. You will help students of all ages adapt to classroom education and program expectations, balance work and other life roles, navigate career transitions and stages and enhance career satisfaction. You will also assist graduates with finding employment opportunities, write resumes, develop portfolios and prepare for interviews.

Be Passionate.

You are passionate about student success and engagement and are versed in the principles of building a community through education. Cooperation, communication, and commitment to our students, the business communities we serve and our stakeholders are the foundation of this role.

Take Initiative.

You are independent and positive. You will work proactively with students, staff and program partners in the Welding Program, understanding the interaction between academics, personal life and career development.

Deliver Results.

Your relevant education combined with your experience has given you the knowledge and skills to support learners to achieve their goals. You are a creative problem solver who works well in a challenging role that is multifaceted. Experience working in an adult environment and with underrepresented groups is an asset. In accordance with the college's strategic direction.

This competition will remain open until filled.

Assiniboine Community College campuses are located on traditional territories of Treaty No.1 and Treaty No.2, the shared traditional lands of Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota, Dene and Anishinabek/Ojibwe peoples, and the homeland of the Métis Nation.
