

HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

8-MONTH
ADVANCED DIPLOMA

Take your existing post-secondary education to the next level. Increase your employability with a specialized credential in human resource management.

Why should you choose an advanced diploma in Human Resource Management?

- 1 Set yourself apart
Build on your existing post-secondary education with this fast-tracked, focused advanced diploma that will prepare you to work in an HR department. Higher-level courses enhance critical thinking skills and Indigenous-focused content provides perspective on First Nation issues within a business context.
- 2 The art of people
If you are passionate about helping people fulfill their potential and aiding businesses in strategically achieving their mission and vision, then this program is for you. Learn how to provide the important balance between employees and their employer so that everyone can achieve success. Become an integral part of a team that supports and nurtures an organization's most important asset—its employees.
- 3 Higher-level training
Develop and increase the skills and knowledge expected by industry. Core areas include advanced computer software systems, training and development, staffing policies and procedures, hiring practices, compensation and benefit programs, and navigating collective agreements. Partner with HR professionals currently working in industry on projects that will see you gain real-world experience for your resume and portfolio.
- 4 Your options are endless
Find opportunities in areas related to personnel administration: staffing, training and development, labour relations, compensation management and collective bargaining. Employment is available in industrial, commercial and government organizations.
