

SOCIAL SERVICE WORKER

2-YEAR
DIPLOMA

Make a meaningful difference in the lives of others while you promote social well-being and long-lasting change. The skills you learn in this diploma program will help people and communities address social issues.

Why should you choose a career as a Social Service Worker?

- 1 Make a difference
Work with individuals, groups and communities to develop strategies and programs to proactively address social challenges, including poverty, addiction, abuse and mental health issues. This program, with an Indigenous focus, will prepare you with the knowledge and skills to make a meaningful contribution.
- 2 Real-world experience
Gain practical skills and knowledge in counselling and interviewing, professional communication and proposal writing while also learning more about Indigenous cultures through hands-on activities and field trips. Through your placements you will explore roles in community health, education and institutional environments.
- 3 A career that makes a difference
This program is ideal for students who are committed to addressing social issues, who have effective interpersonal skills, and who understand the importance of meaningful communication with clients and community partners.
- 4 You are needed
Work on the front lines of social services for provincial, municipal and private agencies. Gain experience in community health centres, justice services, long-term care facilities, social service departments, schools, youth centres, outreach services, addiction centres and mental health services.
