(Assistant Guidance Counsellor)

Assiniboine Community College strives to create Exceptional Learning Experiences for our students. We place a high priority on student success and are committed to building an environment that creates and supports a high level of student engagement.

The School of Health & Human Services is looking for a Job Coach to work with learners in the second year of the Child Development Worker program to be delivered in Sandy Bay First Nation. You will demonstrate strong skill sets in career coaching, facilitation, reporting and working with diverse learners.

Be Passionate.

You are passionate about student success and engagement and are versed in the principles of building a community through higher education. Cooperation, communication and commitment within First Nation, Inuit and Metis communities we serve and with our stakeholders are the foundations of this role.

Take Initiative.

You are independent and positive. You will work proactively with students, staff and program partners in the second year of the Child Development Worker program, understanding the interaction between academics, personal life and career development.

Deliver Results.

You have the compassion and knowledge to support learners to achieve their goals. You are a creative problem solver who works well in a role that is multifaceted. You will have experience in supporting learners and a relevant diploma or degree.

This competition will remain open until filled.

Assiniboine Community College is committed to ensuring that its policies, practices, and systems are free of barriers, emphasize the value of diversity, and promote full participation to ensure dignity, respect, and equal access for all employees. Requests for accommodations can be made at any point during the recruitment process by contacting 204.725.8729 or humanresources@assiniboine.net.

Assiniboine's campuses are located on the traditional territories of Treaty No. 1 and Treaty No. 2, and the shared traditional lands of Cree, Oji-Cree, Dakota, Dene and Anishinabek/Ojibwe peoples, and the homeland of the Métis Nation.

If you are interested in this career opportunity, please forward your resume and cover letter via email/fax/mail to us. Our contact information is provided at the bottom of this advertisement.

We thank you for your interest. Those selected for further consideration will be contacted.
