

Change the organization, neighbourhood, or the world with North America's only MBA IN COMMUNITY ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

About the CBU MBA in Community Economic Development:

The CBU MBA appeals to people who want to make a difference in their organizations and communities, especially those working in community organizations, the public sector, social enterprises and entrepreneurial businesses.

Our curriculum includes the fundamental business subjects found in traditional MBA programs, with a special focus on applying business and management concepts through the lens of community economic development.

The CBU MBA is accessible to business and non-business degree holders, as well as non-degree applicants with extensive managerial experience.
