

Title: Sales Agronomist

Location: Brandon Manitoba 1 position, Shoal Lake Manitoba 2 positions

Shur-Gro Farm Services is an independent agricultural input retailer. We supply crop nutrition and protection products as well as custom application and consulting services to our customers. We know that our success depends on the quality of our people. We value our employees and offer a healthy work environment that focuses on growing and developing people.

Shur-Gro has an industry reputation for operating with integrity, an unprecedented record of staff retention, and a winning-team philosophy. A great career awaits the right person.

Purpose: A Sales Agronomist interacts directly with clients on a first-hand basis to build relationships with growers and industry representatives. Communicating effectively will come easily to a successful Sales Agronomist.

Expected Duties:

- Be the primary liaison between the customer and Shur-Gro, with intent on selling the entire suite of products and services that Sur-Gro provides.
- Develop strong business relationships with our farm customers based on sound agronomy and customer service.
- Consult with growers on all aspects of crop production.
- Conduct field diagnosis of crop health issues.
- Give recommendations on the proper use of crop input products and market Shur-Gro products.

A successful Sales Agronomist will:

- Possess the ability to create meaningful connections with customers.
- Enjoy meeting new people and building long-lasting relationships.
- Share our passion for agriculture and crop production.
- Value our customers as much as we do.

Position will remain open until positions are filled.
