

Concessions Attendants

Serves food following applicable corporate standards, guidelines, and regulations, as well as established policies and procedures. Ensures quality food service is provided at all times. part-time job for events and Game days

Full job description Position: Concession Attendant

Concession Attendants are responsible for providing food and beer service to guests. They work on the concourse during games, concerts, and other events. This is a part-time, hourly, events-based position.

Providing premium-level food and beer service to guests on the concourse during a busy event-time environment during games, concerts, and events at Keystone Centre.

Consistently providing exceptional and knowledgeable service to our fans and providing a memorable experience with every guest interaction

Other duties as required

EXPERIENCE AND QUALIFICATIONS:

Must be at least 18 years of age

Completion of Serving it Right Certificate

Must be able to work weeknights, weekends, and holidays with a start time of approximately 5:00 pm

Must be able to safely lift up to 50 lbs.

Must be able to stand during scheduled shift, withstand repetitive walking, reaching, and bending for long periods of time

Have an incredible ability to thrive in a fast-paced and high-volume environment while maintaining a first-in-class hospitality and food and beverage experience

Experience in high-paced food retail establishment is an asset

Valid Serving it Right Certificate is an asset

Clean kitchen equipment after use according to health and safety policies and procedures assigned to the management.

Label, date, store and rotate food and beverage products in appropriate storage areas following the H&S-QA instruction.

Communicate effectively with all appropriate operational departments. Reports needed maintenance, faulty equipment or accidents to the supervisor immediately.

Perform other duties as assigned or directed. Sodexo offers you a flexible and dynamic work environment, competitive compensation, access to ongoing training and development programs, and countless opportunities to grow within the company.