

SG&R Farms Job Description – Farm Production Technician

Duties include:

- Responsible for feeding cattle herd on daily basis
- Operating grain and hay production equipment as necessary
- Repair, maintenance, and cleaning of farm machinery
- Record keeping of calving and grazing plan
- Monitoring cattle and forage to maintain optimal levels of production and health
- Building and removing temporary electric fence
- Building, repairing and maintaining permanent electric fence
- Maintaining and constructing water infrastructure for cattle
- Writing protocols for daily tasks on the farm
- Maintaining shelterbelts
- Cleaning shop and maintaining farm yard

Duties will vary with skill level and season

Skills Required:

- Passion for Agriculture
- Problem solver
- Mechanically Inclined
- Low Stress Cattle handling ability
- Strong work ethic

Terms of Employment

Seasonal with potential for full time permanent

Hours of Work

Standard workday is 7:00am to 5:30pm four days per week. Half hour lunch break. Schedule may vary during busy season and time off taken to offset extra hours. Weekend work may be required on a rotating schedule.

Requirements

The position requires a valid Manitoba class 5 driver's license. Must be able to operate farm machinery and perform basic maintenance on machines. Candidates must be physically fit and willing to work outside in all weather conditions. College and high school students are encouraged to apply.

Compensation

Competitive wages offered with amount dependant on the candidate and experience. Overtime hours will be banked and exchanged for time off, time for time.

Contact Ryan Boyd 204 724 7019 for more details. Resumes can be emailed to boydsbeef@gmail.com.