

GLOBAL LEGEND EDUCATION

ONLINE TUTOR – ENGLISH / MATH / SCIENCE / FRENCH / SOCIAL STUDIES

Who we are:

Global Legend Education adopt the original North American textbooks and the interactive online learning model of foreign teachers, so that Chinese students in China and Canada can learn from the same famous teachers without going out. Education, enjoy the same high-quality teaching resources, and grow together with the world. North American Legend hopes to lead students to cross geographical barriers, communicate with the world confidently and express freely. Outside of the classroom, we will organize international summer camps, study abroad seminars and other activities every year, so that students can truly learn English, mathematics, physics and chemistry, and the world can do whatever they want.

We are looking for an upbeat, passionate, committed, enthusiastic, and dynamic teacher who wants to work in a rewarding teaching environment. Our Programs offer individual support to students looking to improve their academic skills and study habits. We are teaching students better learning habits! Our current teachers have been with us for long term - it's very rewarding work!

Teaching Subjects Included:

ESL (youngest 5yr old - Adults students)

Writing/Reading Comprehension (G3-7)

Phonics (youngest 5yr old)

Math (K-G12)

Science (Primary school)

French (Primary school)
