

LOCATION Winnipeg	WEBSITE: www.ambassadormechanical.ca	EMAIL: career@ambassadormechanical.com
----------------------	---	---

APPRENTICE/ JOURNEYPERSON PLUMBER

Company Overview

Ambassador Mechanical is a multi-faceted premier commercial mechanical company that has enjoyed tremendous growth since 1991. Ambassador's close partnership with its clients, excellent customer service and understanding the need to deliver an efficient and innovative service to keep it at the forefront of the industry.

Job Overview

The Journeyperson Plumber for Ambassador Mechanical has daily, weekly, monthly, and annual responsibilities. The individual in this position will be responsible to demonstrate accountability and integrity to achieve the required results and will be evaluated for their performance in these areas.

Responsibilities

- Read and interpret blueprints, drawings and specifications
- Determine layout of systems and networks
- Determine piping system requirements and pipe sizing
- Installation of plumbing pipes and fixtures
- Follow all safety regulations
- Complete work orders

Qualifications

- Red seal journeyperson or apprentice training
- Attention to detail
- Excellent customer service skills
- Valid driver's license
- Able to work with little supervision

Benefits

Our company culture includes an environment that values your ideas, teamwork, personal safety, and ongoing education. We offer our employees excellent compensation packages including health, dental and vision benefits to correspond with your experience level and the contributions made to the team. Ambassador offers a variety of interesting projects, including commercial, industrial, institutional, and multi-residential.

If you are looking for a new opportunity to grow in your career and be valued for your contributions, we encourage you to apply today! Submit your complete resume including your qualifications and experience to career@ambassadormechanical.com.